Mr. Edward J. Hall and other of Bennington awake to find themselves famous.

Two weeks from today Vermont fishermen will be reeling in the trout, perhaps.

Already two persons have been killed by base ball, and they were only spectators of the game. Is base ball too brutal?

No, it was not Springfield, Ohio, this time, but Springfield, Missouri. Good old Springfield, Mass., however, is yet to be stained with a lynching.

Why is it that the employees of the Central Vermont railroad "decline to give the exact nature of the terms agreed upon," since they are said to have been materially benefited by the new settlement?

Happy thing for the made-to-order colonels in Vermont that Curtis Hancock of Texas is not in the Vermont legislature, for Mr. Hancock is back of a movement in Texas to prohibit the use of "Colonel," "Major," etc., by civilians.

Fuller C. Smith of St. Albans took two columns and a half of good newspaper space to decline the appointment as Clement's special representative in an independent run for the governorship.
No fuller explanation than that could possibly be required.

THE MADNESS OF LYNCHING.

Governor Folk says that it was a "disgraceful occurrence," and indeed it was all of that—the lynching of three negroes at Springfield, Missouri, Saturday night and the early hours of the Sunday. And what makes the crime all the more disgraceful, to use the expression of Folk, is the fact that innocent men were probably strung up and then burned. There beneath the statue of "Justice" was committed an act which causes the blush of shame to creep over every person who has the last vestige of respect for that fair name; and if human nature among Missourians is not vastly different from that of the average participants in the outrage even now blush for their act. That the triple crime is not condoned by the executive of the state is shown by the expressed determination of Gov. Folk to see the perpetrators punished to the limit of the law, and we trust that the people of Missouri will back up the executive in his effort.

At this point there should be no hesitancy in running down the criminals who brazenly carried out their wicked purpose; for the least inclination to overlook the affair will lend encouragement to equally lawless bands who are perhaps held in check by respect for the punitive hand of the law. There needs no better lesson of the folly of lynch law than this, for in all probability punishment was not meted out to the guilty but to the entirely innocent. In arriving at this conclusion the dying protestations of innocence by the three negroes is not the only reason. Guilty men oftentimes die on the scaffold still protesting that they are innocent of the crime of which they are found guilty.
So the statements of these negroes that they did not commit the crimes charged is not conclusive. But the belief that they told the truth is further strengthened by the statement of the woman, whom two of them were alleged to have attacked, that they were

CROSS-EXAMINATION ENDED.

Medical Witnesses for Defense in Cooper Trial Now Being Heard.

Augusta, Me., April 17.—After being on the witness stand testifying in her own behalf since last Friday morning, Mrs. Alice F. Cooper of South Windsor, who is on trial in the Supreme court, here on the charge of murdering Charles D. Northey, Jr., by shooting, completed her testimony yesterday afternoon. Mrs.
Cooper showed her usual composure during the cross-examination of Attorney General Hamlin at the session yesterday, and only once did she cry, and that was for a very brief period during the forenoon.

The cross-examination did not change to any degree the story of the shooting as told in direct examination, and as also told to Pinkerton Detective Martin, the county officials and the reporters. In the scuffle in the Cooper dining room to get possession of the revolver, Mrs. Cooper admitted that she embraced Northey, but that she did not kill him. She also said she was afraid of him, but did not fear him enough to tell her husband, who was working in his blacksmith shop a short distance away, that she feared him on that October afternoon.

The line of medical testimony on the part of the defense began yesterday afternoon, when Dr. Frederick H. Gerrish of Portland, one of the leading authorities on the brain and its functions in this country, was called to the stand.
The direct examination had barely begun when court adjourned until morning. Five other medical experts will follow Dr. Gerrish.

day afternoon.

TIED OF IMPRISONMENT.

A. Newcomb Tried to Commit Suicide at Thomaston, Me.

Thomaston, Me., April 17.—After having been confined for more than twenty years in the state prison here, where he had been sentenced to life imprisonment for setting fire to buildings, A.
Newcomb declared that he had lived long enough and made an attempt to end his life in the prison work-shop yesterday.

With a knife of his own making, he slashed at his throat and stabbed himself in the thigh in an effort to cut an artery. Both strokes of the knife made severe wounds, but neither will prove fatal. An officer of the prison prevented further attempts to commit suicide. When searched, a second knife was found concealed in the prisoner's boot, and he declared that he would try again to kill himself.

Newcomb, who is now 64 years of age, was convicted of setting fire to a building in Carmel at night, August 22, 1883, and was given the unusual sentence of life imprisonment.

FIREMEN GAVE BALL.

Windsor Dance Attended by One Hundred Couples.

Windsor, April 17.—The second annual ball of the Windsor fire department was held at the town hall last night with supper from 6 to 8 p. m., when the dancing began with music by the Windsor orchestra. The grand march was led by P. J. Sheridan of Claremont, N. H., foreman of the Hook and Ladder company, with visiting firemen, the local firemen and others, 100 couples taking part. The affair was in charge of Messrs. Robert Sloan, Harry Kidder and Fred Dodge of the Windsor department and was most successfully carried out.

ARBITRATION OFFERED.

By Voliva to Dowie in Zion City Entanglement.

Chicago, April 17.—Arbitration of the dispute in the Christian Catholic church over the control of the church was offered yesterday by Wilbur Glenn Voliva to John Alexander Dowie. Dowie has not decided whether to accept the proposal.

Voliva's ultimatum provides for a board of four or eight members as Dowie may choose, half of the members to be selected by Voliva and half by Dowie. In case of a disagreement an additional member of the board is to be selected by Voliva. The board is to decide finally all questions in dispute.
Pending a decision, all property belonging to the church is to be transferred to the board.

Attorney Wetton, representing Dowie, said Dowie would never consent to sacrifice the ecclesiastical power over Zion City. Attorney Newman representing Voliva declared that Voliva was willing to concede five per cent of the property to Dowie, but that he must relinquish claim to all the rest.

The post office department has been asked for a ruling as to whether the latest issue of "Leaves of Healing," the church paper, shall be allowed to go through the mails, Dowie alleging it contains slanderous statements.

the board of aldermen last night, the gating committee appointed by the mayor shortly after the conflagration of February 22, was adopted and $2,500 appropriated toward a better fire department, to be expended in the purchase of fire fighting material. The sum of $300 was appropriated to clean out the reservoir.
